Teacher or Lead Teacher Infant-Toddler and PreSchool
Job Announcement for 2021-22 and beyond

The Lemberg Children’s Center on the campus of Brandeis University is a positive place to play, grow, and learn. Our educators and our state-of-the-art facility, gardens and playgrounds inspire our creativity and community collaborations. We value each other, offer excellent wages and benefits, and have opportunities for advancement. Come help us expand for the 21-22 school year and beyond. We are looking for educators of young children new to the field, as well as EEC Certified Lead Teachers with many years of experience in providing best practice for ensuring inclusion and learning together.

Job Description
Our staff includes specialist in OT, Speech, Child and Family Development, Environmental Education, as well as the arts and the sciences. Job responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

• Planning and implementing a play-based, inclusive, developmentally appropriate, hands-on curriculum.
• Communicating regularly with families (daily and weekly, on-line and in writing).
• Being positive and creative by offering choices and being reflective with others.
• Observing, assessing and documenting children’s development and progress.
• Implementing the Covid-19 and EEC Guidelines for Hygiene and Health Safety.
• Attending weekly staff meetings.
• Leading workshops and college student internships.
• Engaging in best practices for supporting positivity and collaborative social justice efforts.

Salary

• Full-time: $37,500 to $62,000 per year
• Part-time: $20 - $32 per hour
